MR. AND MRS. ROBERT N. KINDELAN

GOOD MORNING YESTERDAY.
YOU WAKE UP-
AND TIME HAS SLIPPED AWAY.

AND SUDDENLY IT'S HARD TO FIND THE MEMORIES YOU LEFT BEHIND.

REMEMBER?
DO YOU REMEMBER?

THE LAUGHTER AND THE TEARS,
THE SHADOWS OF MISTY YEARS,

THE GOOD TIMES
AND THE BAD YOU'VE SEEN
AND ALL THE OTHERS IN BETWEEN.

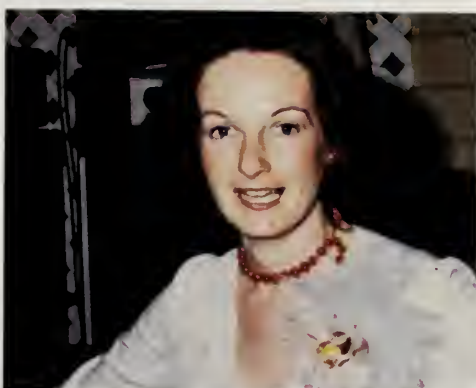

DO YOU REMEMBER
THE TIMES OF YOUR LIFE?

HERE COMES
THE SETTING SUN.
THE SEASONS ARE PASSING
ONE BY ONE.

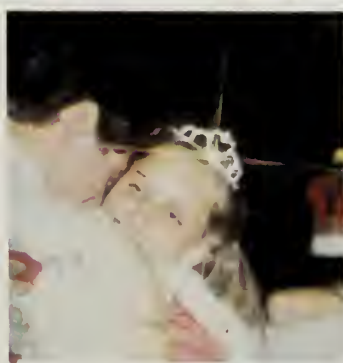

SO GATHER MOMENTS
WHILE YOU MAY,

COLLECT THE DREAMS
YOU DREAM TODAY.

WILL YOU REMEMBER
THE TIMES OF YOUR LIFE?

DEDICATION

MISS SUSAN DUNNIGAN

During the past four years the Class of 1980 has come to know and to respect a very special member of the faculty, Miss Susan Dunnigan.

Even though she has her "cranky" moods and doesn't want any "ugly" pictures in the yearbook, she is a very warm and sensitive person. She has made our high school years that much more enjoyable. Sue is more than just a class advisor; she is also a special friend.

She is a leader in every way, yet she gives us a chance to lead and to express our own opinions. Whenever we run into any obstacles, she is always there to help us out.

So, the Class of 1980, is getting their way again! With all our love and appreciation we are dedicating the 1980 Echo to you, Miss Dunnigan, our class advisor and friend.

THANK YOU

We would like to thank Mrs. Elizabeth Hartshorn for her dedicated service over the past years to the faculty and student body of Holbrook High School. We are sorry to see her leave us, but we wish her much success and happiness in whatever may lie in her future.

THANK YOU

Everyone knows what the yearbook is, but many do not realize the effort that goes into it. It's more than just pictures of all the fun times we've shared. It's a year long process of hard and often discouraging work. It's proofreading and proofreading again until all the errors are found. At this time we would like to call attention to a very special lady. Even though she has been unable to put in quite as many hours as in previous years, she has succeeded in doing the same amount of work. She has kept us going with her high spirits so that we could produce an enjoyable yearbook. So as you reminisce with this year's ECHO, keep in mind the heart that went into it. The ECHO Staff of 1980, with love and appreciation, would like to dedicate this page to Mrs. Grace Kindelan.

HOMECOMING

1979

The traditional Homecoming Day was held on a cool, breezy Saturday afternoon on October 20, 1979. The five finalists, Lori Stevelman, Margaret Cummings, Kathleen Riccio, Robin Mackie, and Carol Maynard stood patiently to hear who would be crowned Homecoming Queen of 1979. Last year's queen, Lisa Clement, proudly gave her title to Lori Stevelman. Each girl received a beautiful arrangement of flowers, after which they were taken for the traditional ride around the football field. At the conclusion of the game, refreshments were served for everyone.

BAND
MAJORETTES
DANCERETTES
COLOR GUARD

The HHS band plays a very important role in promoting enthusiasm and school spirit. The group which includes not only musicians but also danceterettes, color guards, and majorettes supports the football team and performs a half time show at all the games. The band also competes in various competitions and parades. This year the band came in second in Class B of The Annual Christmas Concert held in Quincy. The majorettes came in 1st and Patty MacWilliams came in 2nd for drum major.

The band under the direction of Mr. Myers does several concerts each year. This year an Exchange Concert with a Vermont band was one of the highlights of the year.

JUNIOR PROM '79

"We've Got Tonight"

May 11, 1979 is a date that will long be remembered by all who attended the Junior Prom of the class of 1980. The gym was decorated in a beautiful springtime setting with numerous multi-colored flowers, two cherub fountains flowing with sparkling blue water, and an elegant white gazebo which was constructed especially for the King and Queen. Everyone danced to the theme song "We've Got Tonight" by Bob Seger under a ceiling of blue with a multitude of white and silver stars and a large crystal ball rotating in the center. The Prom this year unlike others in the past did not end by going to a restaurant, but had a buffet that was served after the King, Bob DeMarco and Queen, Lisa Macdermott were chosen.
